

EDP has become known as a manufacturer of barcode labels for storage media of all types of technology, and today the company has established itself as the market leader. The barcode labels manufactured by EDP have been certified by every library manufacturer and ensure the highest quality and maximum reading rates. The company's original portfolio has been constantly adapted to both customer and market requirements. Today the company's range of products includes complex solutions for the IT environment – from provision and management of complete data centers with IT equipment to consulting and services, all the way through to relocation of the entire IT facilities.

IT Consulting

Green IT consulting, analysis, manufacturer-independent consulting, planning and coordination, project management and documentation

IT Management Solutions

KVM over IP switching, analog KVM switching, management of serial consoles, service processor management, management software, desktop enhancements, current monitoring and power distributors

IT Services

IT relocation
IT room cleaning
IT hardware cleaning

IT Security Cells

Consulting, planning, implementation of cells with racks for all documents relevant for safeguarding

IT Control Stations

Diverse work stations with and without work cabinets, corner solutions, complete server stations

IT Rooms / Data Centers

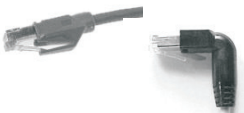

All products and services from a single source

19" Racks

19" standard, silent, air-conditioned and office racks, safes, open 19" frames, wall cabinets, cabinet and current monitoring

Wiring Technology

Angled patch cables
RJ-45 patch cables
Break-out cables
Installation cables

Airflow-Management

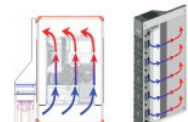

KoldLok,
HotLok

UPS Technology

UPS systems
UPS batteries
UPS maintenance

Air-Condition / Cooling Solutions

Air-conditioned rack, in-row air-conditioning, side-cooler, enclosure air-conditioning, side-cooler, enclosure

Committed and qualified staff make certain that through expert consulting the optimum economic and technological solution is always employed. This personal consulting and support both prior to and after the respective purchase combined with exceptional service quality ensure that EDP is the preferred partner on the market when it comes to IT. The name EDP stands for expertise, innovation and customer-oriented solutions – and it all comes from a single source.